

- A. Which quarter has a gun on it: 1, Massachusetts. It depicts a minuteman with a black powder rifle in his hand.
- B. On which state quarter would you find a duck: 1, Arkansas. There is a mallard duck flying over a body of water.
- C. Which state has a cow on it: 3, Wisconsin. The state's nickname is America's Dairyland, hence the cheese wheel and cow. Montana's quarter portrays a skull from a buffalo, not from a cow.

- D. How many state quarters have horses depicted: 3, Four. The four states are Delaware, Kentucky, Wyoming and Nevada. Delaware has a Patriot named Caesar Rodney riding a horse. Kentucky shows a thoroughbred standing behind a fence in a corral representing the horse breeding and racing there. Wyoming shows a cowboy busting a bronc. Nevada's design depicts three wild mustangs running free.
- E. Which states have American bison (buffalo) on them: 2, Kansas and North Dakota.
- F. How many states have a fish on them: 2, Two. Washington and Alaska have a salmon portrayed on their quarters.
- G. Which one has an astronaut on it: 2, Ohio. It is the home state of John Glenn, America's first Astronaut.
- H. How many states have a trumpet displayed: 1, Two: Tennessee and Louisiana, both represent the musical heritage found in both states.
- I. Which one has the most presidents depicted: 1, South Dakota. The Black Hills monument at Mount Rushmore depicts four presidents. New Jersey and Illinois both depict one president on their statehood commemorative quarter.
- J. How many states depict the state's boundary or outline on them: 4, Fifteen. Hawaii, Minnesota, South Carolina, New York, Michigan, Texas, Idaho, Indiana, Illinois, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Louisiana, Massachusetts, and Georgia each have their state's boundaries featured in the design.

- K. Which state quarter has a race car on it: 3, Indiana. The Indianapolis 500 is held each year on Memorial Day weekend at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway in Indiana. The race originated in 1909.

- L. How many states display a boat or some sort of water craft within the design: 3, Seven. New Jersey, with George Washington crossing the Delaware River; Virginia, showing three ships which came to Jamestown in 1607; Rhode Island, showcasing the America's Cup racing yacht Reliance; Maine, with the four-masted schooner Victory Chimes; Missouri, featuring a small boat depicting a survey party from the Lewis and Clark Expedition; Florida, with a Spanish galleon, represents the Spanish heritage in Florida; Minnesota, shows a couple of fishermen in a small bass boat fishing in one their ten-thousand plus lakes. Two other U.S. territories also include watercraft, they are: Guam, which shows a flying proa (two parallel attached canoes, one with a sail in which the persons would occupy, the other being a stability buoy); and the Northern Mariana Islands show a typical canoe, similar to the proa, with a Polynesian style (inverted triangle) sail affixed.